Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast.

Headache of any kind is caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart, which pumps the blood so fast that it congests the smaller arteries and veins of the head, producing violent, throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drank before breakfast for a while, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache, but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphate hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

Results are quick, and it is claimed that those who continue to flush out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning never have any headache or know a miserable moment.—Adv.

MARSHFIELD.

In the passing away of Charles E. Shepard the musical fraternity of Marshfield have lost a man who has done more for music than any other person who ever lived in that town; choir master in the Methodist church more than 50 years, teaching singing schools year after year, engaged in singing conventions, his life has truly been "one glad, sweet song."

But this is not all—the Marshfield Cornet band has lost one of its most loyal, enthusiastic and indefatigable members, always ready to go anywhere, at any time, time and team always at the disposal of "the boys."

And he is remembered by a few as a member of the old band away back in 1856-7-8, when the "Old Elder," George W. Nownes, was the leader, playing with Oscar Goodwin, Ira Batchelder, Hudson Kibbee, Charles Nownes, Daniel Holcomb, Wright Gould, John N. Davis, George O. Davis, Charles Newton, Morris Goodwin, Samille Smith, William C. Goodwin, Calvin Hills, Harvey Dodge, Lewis Swann and others whom we do not now recall. Of this number Charles Newton, William C. Goodwin and Harvey Dodge are the only ones living. The old band was in being until the first year of the Civil war.

But "Shep's" best work in band business was in the present band, where his knowledge of music and band instruments helped many of the novitiates over the rocky roads of scales, time and after-beats in a way that was a wonder.

to his pupils. He was always present at rehearsals, even up to the spring of the present year, when feeble old age compelled him to forego the pleasure of being present with "the boys."

The present band was organized in 1882. On July 4, 1915-33 years after its organization, he was one of the eight of the original 19 members who played in the band that day. The remaining seven are A. E. Lamberton, G. L. Dwinell, A. W. Blake, H. A. Wilson, J. W. Sulham, F. G. Merrill and Ira H. Edson. There are a few others of the original members living and we recall William C. Goodwin, who also played in the old band, G. A. Bemis of Barre and Burt M. Shepard of Montpelier.

The boys will meet in the bandroom as of old; but they will miss "Shep" with his joyous "Hello, boys," his smiling face and the pleasant and kindly word he had for everyone.

Many an eye will grow dim and voices will be hushed in sadness as they meet and see "Shep's" vacant chair.

"We shall meet, but we shall miss him. There will be one vacant chair."

WHERE ARE MY CHILDREN?

This is the Photoplay now playing to the utmost capacity at Majestic Theatre, Boston. Now in its fourth month.

This is the Photoplay that is turning thousands away from three theatres in New York City. Now in its fifth month.

This is the Photoplay that broke all Records in Providence last three weeks. Thousands were turned away, unable to gain admission.

So much stress, deservedly or undeservedly, has been laid upon the disagreeable or unpleasant features of this wonderful play that it is well to recall that, after all, its moral is THE TRIUMPH OF MOTHER LOVE. The District Attorney's Wife, after her persistent avoidance of the pains and responsibilities of maternity, comes at last to the realization of its great, its holy meaning.

That she, on account of her foolish, ave, her criminal acts, was unable to wear the glorious diadem of motherhood simply emphasizes the worth of that diadem. The happy mother of the eugenic baby, the no less happy mother of the "olive branches three," with three more calculated upon, are object lessons that cannot be overlooked, and these mothers become the natural objects of envy of the poor rich woman to whom maternity is denied.
